GUEST SPEAKER Tessa Compton informed the trustees owns a lioness and is applying to have it licensed. Part of the process is to inform the township trustees. Ms. Compton gave the trustees an emergency protocol and asked the trustees to sign a letter saying they have been informed of the lioness.

CORRESPONDANCE

FO received a repair schedule from the county on the bridges in the township. Received notice from the Board of Elections asking for access to the building.

Tr. Hupp thanked the Bryans for the new microwave. He also thanked the Friends of Bowling Green Township and all the people that helped for the successful egg hunt for the children at Easter.

Tr. Chorpenning attended Engineer Safety workshop and had a report on crashes in the township, LTAP newsletter, Planning commission letter, National Road Yard sale notice, Licking County Advisory committee meeting, would like to go over building rules and application, CMI vs. Township Case.

REPORTS

ZONING INSPECTOR Barb Selegue, zoning inspector, had 1 permit for the month 15861 Main St. Brownsville. FO reported OPERS will no longer accept quarterly reports so the zoning inspector will now be paid monthly.

Zoning Appeals Mike Zinnsmeister and Jeff Baird's terms have been expired. Trustees discussed the open position on the appeals board. Tr. Hupp made a motion to appoint Ed Monroe and Thomas Clayton to the appeals board. Tr. VanBuren seconded the motion. Roll Call: VanBuren yes, Hupp yes, Chorpenning no.

ZONING COMMISSION Trustees discussed the openings on the zoning commission. Tr. Hupp made a motion to remove Geary Stepp and appoint Dee Krier to the open position, to extend Shannon Duval and Tom Robb's term 4 more years, Ron Duval as an alternate. Tr. VanBuren seconded the motion. Roll Call: VanBuren yes, Hupp yes, Chorpenning no

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Tr. Hupp reported the township has been awarded damages in the case against CMI. The township was awarded $63,650 for multiple violations of the single trash hauler contract. They have 30 days to pay the fine. If it isn't paid in 30 day, the court could file a lien against their property.

Jim Lusk in Linnville has had trouble determining if the alley that runs through is property is an open alley or closed. The neighbor says it is open and would like to use it to get to their property. Mr. Lusk was told many years ago the alley was closed. Tr. Hupp said the township could request the county survey the area. Tr. Chorpenning made a motion to have the area surveyed by the county engineer at no charge. Tr. VanBuren seconded the motion. Roll Call VanBuren yes, Hupp yes, Chorpenning yes.

BOWLING GREEN TOWNSHIP

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Held April 29th, 2015

Tr. Hupp said one the refrigerators in the community building needs replaced. He called AEP to see if the pick-up old appliances, they do. They will pick it up and take $50 off the electric bill.

The trustees and employees trimmed some of the trees in the township. They hope to start doing this every year.

NEW BUSINESS

Trustees had a public hearing about the single trash hauler contract on April 26 to get the public's input on the issue. There were about 15 people in attendance. The choices are to rebid the contract or extend the current contract. The majority of the residents at the hearing agree the contract should be extended. John Peckskamp from Big O Refuse was present to discuss the contract. He stated Big O Refuse is willing to extend the contract at the same price and also offer free recycling to all residents. Trustee Hupp asked if there could be a large recycle placed in the township. Mr. Peckskamp said they could and would be no charge to the township. Andrew Kimble was also present from Kimble Companies. Their company collects in 28 cities in Ohio. They have their own Landfill in Dover Ohio. Kimble also offers recycling. They were just awarded the contract in Thornville. Trustee Chorpenning asked if Tr. Hupp invited any other trash haulers. Tr. Hupp said he didn't invite any companies. Kimble contacted him because he knew about the contract 3 years ago. Tr. VanBuren said everyone seems happy with Big O and there doesn't seem to be a problem just extending the contract. Trustee VanBuren made a motion to keep Big O Refuse and extend the contract for 3 years. Tr. Hupp seconded the motion. Roll Call: VanBuren yes, Hupp yes, Chorpenning no. Tr. Chorpenning said there are a couple of mistakes in the contract and things need to be fixed like the town dumpster. He feels legal should draw up a contract. Tr. Hupp said the original contract was drawn up by legal counsel.

Tr. VanBuren said there needs to be some children playing signs on Somerset. Tr. Hupp made a motion to purchase 2 children playing signs. Motion seconded by Tr. VanBuren. Roll Call: VanBuren yes, Hupp yes, Chorpenning yes.

The truck is paid off now. Tr. Hupp would like to look into replacing the cinder bin. It would cost around $13,000. FO said there would probably be enough. They need to also discuss and bid for any road work. FO will add to the agenda for next meeting. Tr. VanBuren thinks they should consider doing Open Woods, Cooperrider, maybe Lawyers.

Tr. Chorpenning brought up the building rental form. He said there are some changes that need to be made and suggested the form is made into a triple copy so all parties have a copy of the form. Tr. Hupp would like to see it before it goes to the assistant prosecutor for review. The board will review it at the next meeting.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Patty Volland said the Easter Egg Hunt that was done by the friends of Bowling Green Township was very successful and they would like to thank everyone who came out to help stuff eggs and help out. They would also like to thank Trustees Hupp and VanBuren for voting them to allow some funds for the egg hunt. And a special thank you to Liz Selegue for playing the Easter bunny. The seniors donated the money from the bake sale to the township. They made $186.00

Pete Smith said there are a few tires dumped on Mt. Hope Rd. Licking township said there was a tire round up and asked when that would happen. Tr. Hupp said we would have filled out some paperwork and Tr. Chorpenning told the county we weren't interested. Tr. Chorpenning said that isn't accurate.
