REPORTS

ZONING INSPECTOR Zoning inspector Barb Selegue reported a certified letter needs to be sent to 16246 Laurel Hill

She has received an application for a lot split on Bryson RD. She has also received an application for a resident to put a shed on his property.

She talked to Chad Brown from the health department. He will be coming to a trustee meeting before the health department begins inspecting septic systems in the township.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS The Township collected 136 tires during the tire collection day. Trustee Hupp thanked everyone who helped work on the playground. All of the old mulch was removed and the rubber mulch was added. The concrete areas were added for the new benches. There will probably be another work day to finish up the rest of the items that need to be done. The new fence should be installed the first week in June. We will plan to paint the community building on Saturday May 21, weather permitting.

NEW BUSINESS Trustee Hupp made a motion to put a notice out for bidding on the alleys and Cooperrider RD. Trustee VanBuren seconded the motion. Roll Call vote: VanBuren yes, Hupp yes, Glaub yes. The bids will be opened at the June meeting and Trustee VanBuren will be the contact person for any contractor questions. Trustee Hupp made a motion to rent a track hoe for ditching. Trustee VanBuren seconded the motion. Roll Call vote: VanBuren yes, Hupp yes, Glaub yes.

BJ Cottrill turned in an application. He is interested in working part time if needed.
