BOWLING GREEN TOWNSHIP
BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Held September 20, 2016

Bowling Green Township Board of trustees opened this junk car meeting at 7:00pm with roll call. All trustees and Fiscal Officer were present.

The zoning inspector, Barb Selegue, she has 4 junk car cases.

JC002-16- 16184 Laurel Hill RD. There are 2 vehicles on this property, a blue truck and a yellow gremlin. There is also white car in question on this property. The board decided to discuss this case further at the next business meeting.

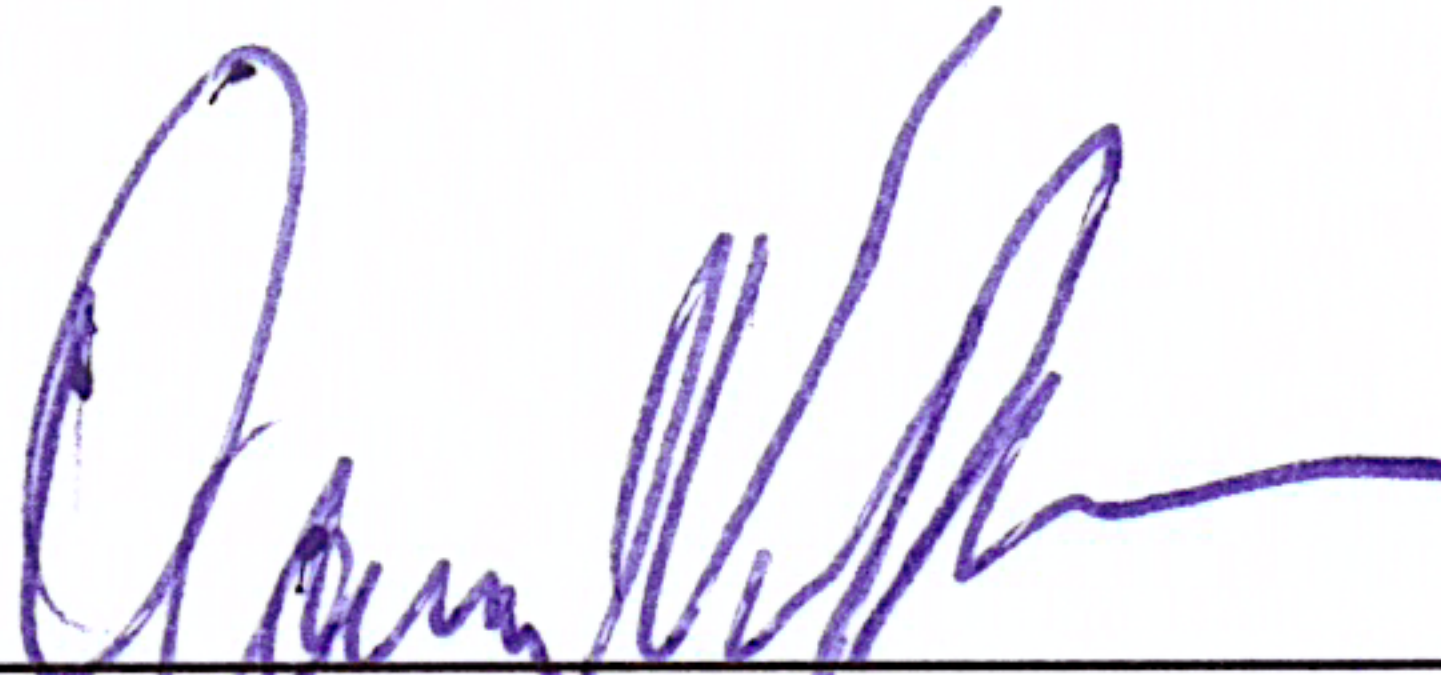

JC003-16-15487 Main St Brownsville. There is Ford Explorer that has been sitting in the same spot for 6 months. Should there be a certified letter be sent? Trustees discussed the vehicle is sitting along a state road. Tr. Hupp made a motion to contact the state highway patrol about the vehicle being abandoned. Tr. Glaub seconded the motion. Roll call vote: VanBuren yes, Hupp yes, Glaub yes.

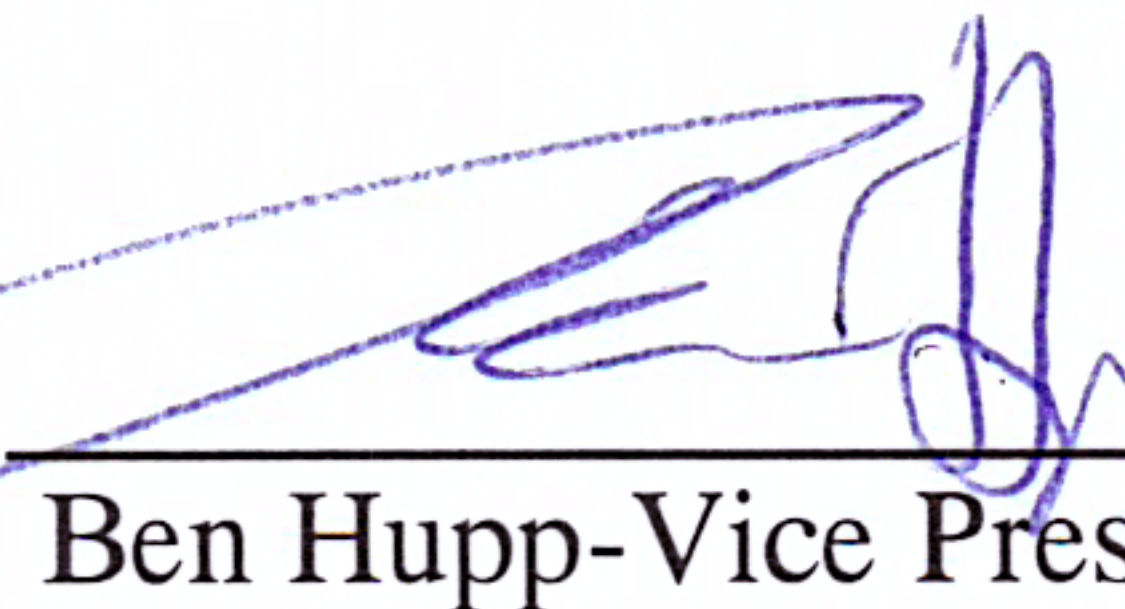

JC004-16 she will discuss at the next junk car meeting since she can't figure out who owns the property.

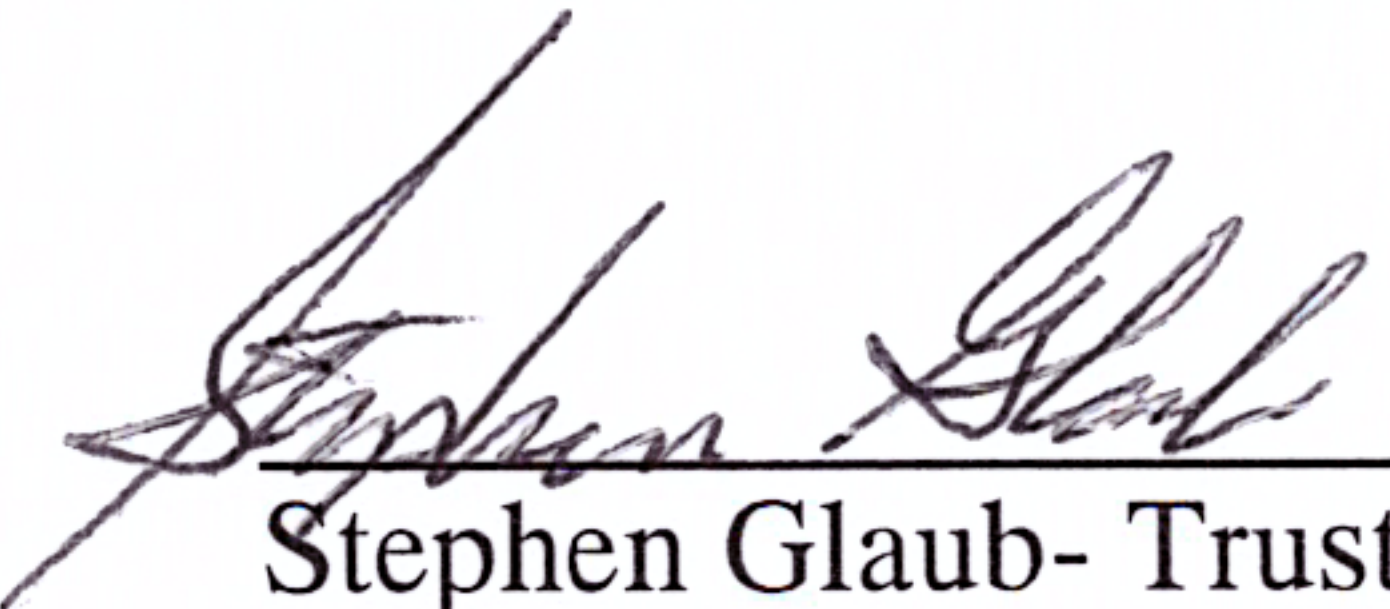

JC005-16 - 14124 National RD Thornville-multiple cars on the property. It looks like they are starting a junk yard. Tr. Glaub will stop and talk to the property owner.

Barb will check into finding a towing company that is willing to contract with us. All of the cases have been sent at least 2 notices. Barb will check into prices on towing and storage fees and the board will discuss at the next junk car meeting.

Trustee VanBuren made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Motion seconded by Glaub. With business complete the board adjourned at 7:24pm.
