Barb Selegue reported the Easter Egg hunt was successful again this year. Geico donated $100, TC Market donated hot dogs, Cotterman Brothers donated the goodie bags. Seniors had a bakes sale and sold out.

Board discussed the trash contract. Things they would be like to check into with the companies that bid: smaller trucks for the Alleys in Brownsville or would a dumpster be an option for the town. Same day pickup for the whole township and offer recycling.

CORRESPONDANCE REPORTS

ZONING INSPECTOR The zoning inspector issued 3 permits for April and did 2 lot splits. The zoning inspector asked the board to charge an administrative fee to for culvert permits. The board decided against it at this time.

There will be a junk car meeting on May 16th.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Tim May asked when the roads would be done. Tr. VanBuren said the first of next week.
