GUEST SPEAKER

Kevin Black thanked the trustees for the asphalt on Mt. Hope.

Stu Mack said the company trimming trees left a bunch branches on Open Woods and Cherry Hill Rd.

Correspondence: FO received an email from the prosecutor's office stating there will be a change to our assistant prosecutor again.

Zoning: Barb Selegue, zoning inspector, reported she issued 2 permits for the month. Andy Wells and George Romano.

Bob Wess is moving stuff away from the road and back to the rear of his property. He seems to be trying to comply with the court order.

Unfinished Business

The air conditioner in the meeting room needs repaired. Houston Heating ordered the part and should be returning to install it soon.

The board still needs to look into purchasing a truck and building a cinder bin.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Barb Selegue suggested we use a different company for the port a Johns next year.

Trustee VanBuren made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Seconded by Trustee Glaub. With business complete, the board adjourned at 7:45pm.
